TESTIMONIALS ABOUT ROBERT MARTICHENKO

"Listening to Robert is always an amazing experience. He is absolutely skilled at performing public presentations and is able to capture 100% of the audience's attention with his wide range of wise, practical lean examples based on real business experiences. A genuine pleasure to attend his keynote at Barcelona CSCMP Supply Chain Leadership Forum 2017 - which was rated 5 stars as an excellent session by attendees!"

-Miquel Serracanta, CSCMP European Regional Advisor - Partner Solutions & Decisions

"I've seen firsthand Robert's unique gift of engaging groups large and small. He is a master of transforming even the most complex concepts into an experience that is entertaining, enlightening, and most importantly, actionable. When we're fortunate enough to have Robert speak at one of our events, attendees always ask us to "get him back."

-Mark Richards, Associated Warehouses Inc.

"While it is a given that Robert Martichenko is a proven industry expert, his capabilities extend far beyond being well-informed and knowledgeable. One of Robert's exceptional capabilities is to communicate relevant concepts in an informative and interesting style. As a result, he is able to instill a sense of urgency and enthusiasm in everything he does, including speaking and communicating with industry representatives. He is a master at making the complicated seem simple, and the simple seem extraordinary."

-C. John Langley Jr., Phd.D. - Penn State University

"What I enjoy about Robert's presentations is his exceptional ability to connect with the attendees on a personal level. You can feel the energy in the room rise as he creates a safe environment for people to share issues they are tackling. Best of all, attendees leave with real-time solutions because of Robert's focus on problem solving and his resolve for continuous improvement. Robert's excitement and passion are contagious. He can get the room both excited and serious about the same topic! With Robert, you go on a journey that includes facing realities, seeking out the truth, and dealing with whatever comes along the way with both a lightness and tenacity to see you through to an ending that is better than you could have imagined."

-Carole Bennett, M.B.A, Director of Program Development and Marketing - Georgia Tech Supply Chain & Logistics Institute
